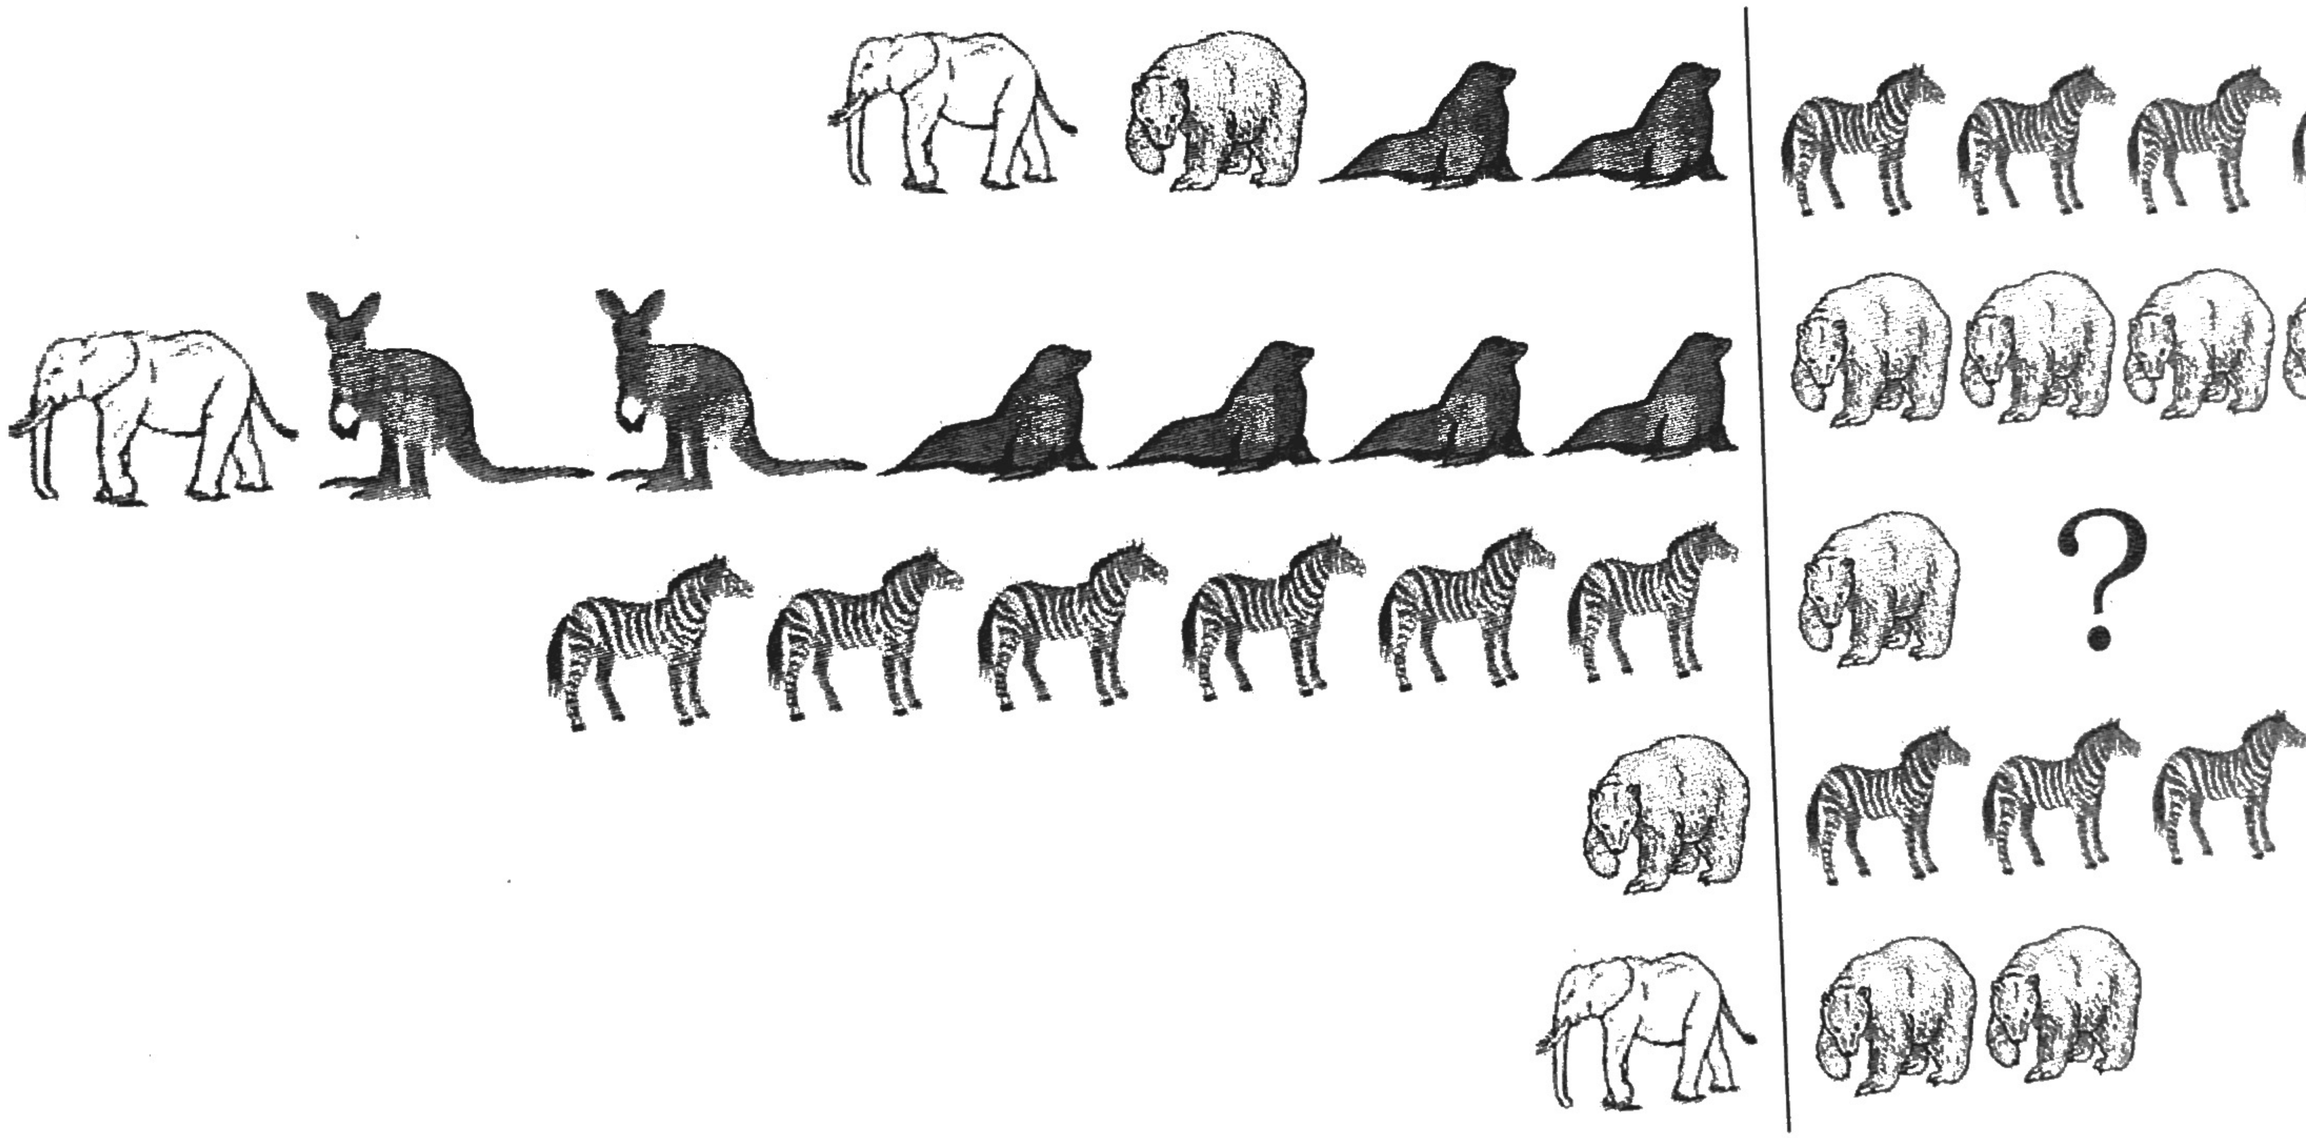
Traveling Circus


The Circus Ringleader wants to use a giant seesaw as the final act of the show. The seesaw balances on the middle, and on each side the animals on the left exactly balance those on the right – all but the third act. Can you figure out how many SEALS are needed in place of the question mark so that they (and the bear) will exactly balance the six zebras?